With reference to the attached letter dated January 6, 1934, from the Netherlands Consulate-General on the subject of Mrs. Zosia C. Sutterle nee Yelowitsky alias Elovitsky, enquiries show that Mrs. Sutterle ^{was} born on January 28, 1902 at Gitonin, Poland. She has not, however, been registered with the local Polish Consulate as a Polish citizen.

During 1917/18 she resided in Habarovsk, Siberia, with her relation - as Inspector of the Habarovsk Police, and his family. In 1919 she left for Vladivostok where her father kept a flower garden. There she received employment as a nurse. It is reported that during this time she married a Serbian officer who, shortly afterwards was killed during an uprising in the Maritime Province. In 1921 or 1922 she came to Shanghai and was again employed as a nurse. Some time later, she made the acquaintance of Frederick W. Sutterle, an elderly and wealthy American, who is President of the China Realty Co., No. 70 Szechuen Road (File D.1242). She cohabited with him for a few years and on August 28, 1924, they were married in Chicago, U.S.A. Mrs. Sutterle is known in Shanghai as a lady who lives a life of luxury. She is interested in Dramatic Art and has organised amateur theatrical performances for charity. She has also undertaken benevolent work. Mrs. Sutterle has made several trips to Europe and has visited Swiss resorts for the benefit of her health. About a year ago, she separated from her husband. It is rumoured that she has refused to divorce him as she is not satisfied with the allowance settled upon her.

The mother and sister of Mrs. Sutterle are living in Shanghai. Mrs. Sutterle resides at No. 1884 Avenue Joffra.

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL POLICE C. & S. B. REGISTRY. No. D 5613 Date 8 / 1 / 34
--

Sir,

 No previous record.*
 See file D1242.*
I have the honour to inform you that Mrs. Zosia Y Sutterle nee Yelowitski, born at Gitonin, Poland, 28 January 1902, who was married to Frederick W. Sutterle, an American citizen on 22 August 1924 in Chicago, has applied for a visé for admission into Hungary.

Through the above marriage Mrs. Sutterle lost her Polish nationality but did not acquire American citizenship. She travels on a declaration sworn before the local American Consulate General on 20 July 1933.

From similar declarations in her possession it would appear that she travels rather extensively.

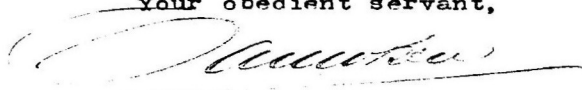

Her present address is at 1884 Ave Joffre.

I should be much obliged to you if you would kindly inform me whether anything is known against her from a political or moral point of view.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Chinese Secretary.

T. P. Givens, Esquire,
Officer i/c Special Branch,
Shanghai Municipal Police,
SHANGHAI.
